

Watership Down – Part 1: Answer these questions after reading Part 1.

- 1) What is an epigraph and why does each section begin with an epigraph?
- 2) What is the point of view of Watership Down? How does this point of view affect the story? How would it be different if the story were told in first person?
- 3) List the characters we've met so far. Why do you think Richard Adams gave his characters these names?
- 4) What is the exposition of this story?
- 5) What is the inciting incident of this story?
- 6) Why do Hazel and others leave the Sandleford Warren?
- 7) Describe the obstacles (both internal and external) that Hazel and his friends have to overcome in order to reach Cowslip's warren.
- 8) What was so unusual about Cowslip's warren?
- 9) How does this theme apply so far: "appearances can be deceiving?"
- 10) List any other themes you have seen in Part 1. What examples from the story show these themes?
- 11) Who has demonstrated the most leadership so far and why?
- 12) What other stories does this story remind you of? (Those with similar plots, characters, or goals?)
- 13) What do you predict will happen next?

Watership Down – Part 1: Answer these questions after reading Part 1.

- 1) What is an epigraph and why does each section begin with an epigraph?
- 2) What is the point of view of Watership Down? How does this point of view affect the story? How would it be different if the story were told in first person?
- 3) List the characters we've met so far. Why do you think Richard Adams gave his characters these names?
- 4) What is the exposition of this story?
- 5) What is the inciting incident of this story?
- 6) Why do Hazel and others leave the Sandleford Warren?
- 7) Describe the obstacles (both internal and external) that Hazel and his friends have to overcome in order to reach Cowslip's warren.
- 8) What was so unusual about Cowslip's warren?
- 9) How does this theme apply so far: "appearances can be deceiving?"
- 10) List any other themes you have seen in Part 1. What examples from the story show these themes?
- 11) Who has demonstrated the most leadership so far and why?
- 12) What other stories does this story remind you of? (Those with similar plots, characters, or goals?)
- 13) What do you predict will happen next?